

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Sadie Kor Peterson, as a wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, has given her love and understanding not only to her family and friends, but to innumerable school children over the past 60 years; and,

WHEREAS, Sadie was born and reared in South Dakota and graduated from White High School in 1925. Her undergraduate work in science and education was taken at General Beadle College, now Dakota State College, and South Dakota State University; and,

WHEREAS, Sadie taught in rural schools in Moody and Brookings Counties for a total of 25 years; and,

WHEREAS, for 14 years, Sadie stayed home to rear her own family; and,

WHEREAS, She has devoted much of her energy to church and community activities; and,

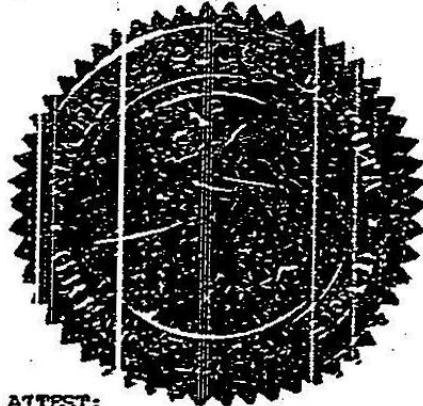

WHEREAS, since her retirement, Sadie Peterson has been, and currently is, a frequent substitute teacher in Brookings Middle School; and,

WHEREAS, Sadie, a teacher whose career has spanned six decades, has been loved by three generations of school children:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 24, 1988, as in South Dakota, and join in expressing our gratitude for her exceptional gifts in the art of teaching.

SADIE PETERSON DAY

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltine
JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fifth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

The signature of George S. Mickelson, Governor of South Dakota, in cursive ink.

GEORGE S. MICELSON, GOVERNOR